The Rev. Dr. Thomas O. Summers, book editor and secretary of the General Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, died at his residence, near the Vanderbilt University, Saturday, after but a few hours illness, in the presence of his wife, his son and a few friends. The death of this distinguished divine created a profound sensation, and his loss is sincerely mourned by every member of the conference.

Take-it-Easy and Live-Long are brothers, and are related to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has lengthened many a life.

The Postmaster General, in a letter to Hon. Mr. Hammond, of Georgia, sustains a ruling of the Post office that bills, receipts and orders for subscription to newspapers cannot form a part of a supplement.

The Distinguishing Charm.

A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologne.

Mississippi Press Association.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, MISS. PRESS ASSOCIATION, Yazoo City, Miss., May 3d, 1882.

The Seventeenth Annual meeting of the MISSISSIPPI PRESS ASSOCIATION will be held at Natchez, Wednesday June 7th, 1882.

ANNUAL ORATOR—Hon. Thos. Spight, of the RIPLEY SENTINEL.

ANNUAL ESSAYIST—F. C. Morehead, of the PLANTERS' JOURNAL.

ANNUAL POET—S. A. Jonas of the ABERDEEN EXAMINER.

ANNUAL PORTRESSES—Mrs. Mollie McGee Snell, of Columbus, and Miss Johanna Hunt, of Vicksburg.

Mrs. B. H. Moore, of Corinth, was requested to read a poem at this meeting.

Major G. W. Harper, of the RAYMOND GAZETTE, was requested to write a history of the Mississippi Press, to be completed, if possible, by this meeting.

The managers of the following Railroads have kindly consented to give FREE TRANSPORTATION to those holding CERTIFICATES OF MEMBERSHIP, issued by the President of the Association: Mobile and Ohio, Memphis & Charleston, Mississippi and Tennessee, Natchez and Jackson, Chicago, St. Louis and N. Orleans, and Vicksburg and Meridian. Certificates can be used from the 4th to the 20th of June. The General Passenger Agent of the New Orleans and Mobile Railroad informs me that all editors who will be likely to travel over that line hold passes on the same.

The following steamboat lines will also pass members on conditions mentioned below: Parisot Line of steamers (Yazoo River) one fare roundtrip; Steamer Natchez, $8.00 for the round trip from Vicksburg to Natchez. The other steamboat lines have not been heard from as yet.

The members will meet at Bolton Depot, Vicksburg and Meridian Railroad, on the morning of June 6th, where vehicles will be provided to convey them to Raymond, eight miles distant. At this point a special train of the Natchez and Jackson Railroad will be in waiting to take the members to Natchez. In order to arrive at Bolton on time, it will be necessary to reach Jackson on the night of June 5th, or early on the morning of June 6th, so that connection can be made at this place (Jackson) with Vicksburg and Meridian train going west, which leaves about 5 o'clock A. M.

The editors are expected to go in a body from Bolton. It is the wish of the citizens of Natchez and Raymond that the members should take the Bolton-Raymond route, and I am of the opinion that this is the QUICKEST and BEST route, all things considered.

The President expresses the hope that there will be a full attendance of the members. He has assurances from the refined and hospitable citizens of Natchez that the doors of her people will be thrown open to the Mississippi Press, and that everything will be done to make the 17th meeting of our Association one of the most pleasant on record.

All who are at present members, or who are actual editors and publishers, who desire to join, can get certificates by writing to the President, stating name and paper represented.

Certificates of membership will be issued in conformity with the following resolutions, which were adopted at the last meeting of the Association at Aberdeen:

WHEREAS, Articles 3 and 4 of the Constitution of this Association indicate very clearly that actual connection with the Press shall be condition of membership, and

WHEREAS, complaints have been made from time to time by railroad authorities and others extending courtesies and hospitalities, that some have availed themselves thereof who were not entitled thereto, the following regulations are therefore adopted for the future government of the Association:

1st. Any editor or publisher of a newspaper, regularly published, at stated times, shall be entitled to membership, on payment of such fees and dues as may be prescribed from time to time.

2nd. Proxies shall not be issued to any person, unless he or she is actually employed on, or connected with the paper, or is a regular contributor thereto.

3rd. Honorary membership shall be restricted to those who have been connected with the Press, or who may be selected from time to time to prepare poems, essays, etc., but no one shall be considered an honorary member unless so elected by the Association, and certificate of same shall be issued, signed by the President and Secretary.

4th. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Association, with in thirty days before each annual meeting, to prepare a carefully revised roll of the journals entitled to be represented in the Association, and the names of such members as are entitled to certificates; a copy of which shall be furnished the President of the Association for his guidance in issuing certificates to any person not clearly entitled thereto, under the rule of the Association.

The annual dues of $1 will be expected of every member before the session closes.

R. WALPOLE, Pres.
E. S. WILSON, Sec.

The Enterprise Courier says it is the opinion of the Judge and District Attorney that "shooting for any particular article, as has been the custom in this county is a clear violation of the law, and the parties who get up the raffle and those who own the articles 'shot for,' are subject to indictment. The only shooting exempt from the provision of the law against gambling is a shooting match—a trial at skill between two or more parties.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

An Affecting Scene.

Special to the Appeal.]

Nashville, May 3.—The most affecting scene which occurred in the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South to-day, was when Bishop Paine, now eighty-five years old, arose and delivered the following address to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

DEAR BRETHREN—While joining heartily with my colleagues in the address you have heard, I beg your indulgence to make a few remarks of a personal character. During nearly sixty five years I have had the honor of being an itinerant Methodist preacher and for thirty six years a bishop. In the General Conference of 1824 I was a delegate, and as bishop or delegate have attended every session since then. For the confidence in my reliability, I wish to now return my most earnest gratitude. To my much-respected colleagues in the episcopacy, between whom and myself the utmost cordial feelings have been unvaryingly maintained, I tender my thanks. They have generously supplied my lack of service by doing double duty, and now, beloved brethren, worn down with age and infirmities, I ask to be permitted to retire from future active service. Permit me, in conclusion, to congratulate you upon the auspicious circumstances under which you have met, and to remind you of your high responsibility to God and His church. Should it be allowed me in making this, probably my last communication to a General Conference, to express the results of my experience and observation as to the doctrines and polity of our beloved Methodism, I would say, after devoting a life-time to the study of its doctrines, my conviction as to their spiritualness has strengthened, and my estimation of the importance of maintaining the essential features of its polity has increased. I do most devoutly thank God that in early life I became a Methodist itinerant preacher and have continued such, but above all I rejoice in the religious experience which Methodism presents as the privilege of its members: "The joy unspeakable and full of glory." To enjoy this is the crowning glory of the christian life. I rejoice in a thorough conversion, consciously attested by the witnessing Spirit, a pure and consecrated daily life and its end, if it can be properly said ever to end, in the crown of glory that fadeeth not away. For his culmination I shall beg calmly and with humble confidence to wait until the pains and infirmities of this life shall pass away. There may we meet again.

Long before the venerable bishop had ceased reading the above, nearly all the members of the conference were in tears. When he had concluded his remarks the congregation caught up the hymn, "Through many dangers, toils and snares."

Representative Muldrow, of Mississippi, has made one of the most notable speeches in opposition to the Tariff commission bill so far delivered in the House. He spoke for the agricultural class, which comprises an overwhelming majority of his constituents, and representing their interests, he discussed the question in a broad and national spirit, looking at the practical results of tariff legislation rather than its political tendencies. Mr. Muldrow declined to accept protection arguments passed upon the difference of wages between protective America and free trade in England, with the protective countries of continental Europe, thereby showing clearly that as between these nations lying so near together, the rate of wages was much higher in England than in either France or Germany, where extreme protective principles prevail.—Washington Post, April 28.

The public are indebted to Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., not only for their standard medicinal preparations, but also for improving the looks of the community by their incomparable Hair Vigor.

GAS LIT LIFE ILLUSTRATED.

The above is the title of a series of sketches of the shady side of life and character in the Great Metropolis, now being fully illustrated from authentic sketches in the

of New York, which are realistic and faithful portraits from real life.—The illustrations are by the best artistic talent attainable, and the descriptions are from the pen of the most gifted journalist and brilliant writer in America, who, it is conceded, has rivalled that master hand at word painting—Charles Dickens. It is sufficient to say that "New York's Gaslit Life" will present the most striking, vivid and truthful pictures of the under current of life in New York City that have ever been presented to the public.—The National Police Gazette of New York, is for sale by all newsdealers, price 10 cents per copy, or it can be ordered direct from the publisher.

Subscription price, $4.00 per year. The National Police Gazette, of New York, has no connection with any other publication of its class, who for gain, as far as possible copy its title and appearance.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned against buying weak imitations of the National Police Gazette. In all cases see that the paper is dated from New York and has the publisher's name printed on each copy.

Remittances should be made by post office order, draft on New York, or by registered letter, to

THE NEWSPAPER.

ABLE, NEWSY, GOOD AND CHEAP.

WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL.

The Courier-Journal—Henry Watterson, Editor—is by circulation and reputation the acknowledged Representative Newspaper of the South, having by far the largest circulation of any paper at the South, and a reputation that renders it well known throughout the United States.

The Courier Journal is a consolidation of the Louisville Courier, Louisville Journal and Louisville Democrat, and is now in its fifth year. Being a long-established and thoroughly responsible paper, occupying its own property worth over $500,000, and having the most costly machinery and ample means, subscribers in making advance payments for it do not run the risk of losing their money, as is too frequently the case in papers that have a precarious existence of only a few years.

Special terms to agents for subscriptions to the Courier-Journal will be sent free of charge to any one on application. Subscription terms, postage free, are: For Daily, $12, Sunday, $2; Weekly, $1.50 a year; Clubs of five, and over, $1.20 each for yearly subscription; $1 for 7 months; 50 cents for three months.

Address W. N. HALDEMAN, Pres't Courier-Journal Co., Louisville, Ky.

FARMERS LOOK HERE!

MAKE YOUR OWN GUANO.

Shun these guano dealers and manufacture your own fertilizers. Most of the material is on your own farms and easy to be had, and the balance can be had at your nearest town.

One receipt for quickly manufacturing guano, far better than the spurious stuff sold by unscrupulous dealers, will be mailed to you on receipt of ONE DOLLAR.

The directions are simple, no tools or apparatus needed besides what a farmer already has, and the cost does not exceed THREE DOLLARS per ton. Three hundred pounds put on an acre will make a better crop than any guano you can buy. Send your order and one dollar by mail, at my risk, with post-office plainly written to R. J. EDENFIELD, Swainsboro, Ga.

Feb. 21—16w.
